Land Economics

Edited by Daniel W. Bromley

ISSN: 0023-7639, e-ISSN: 1543-8325, 4/year

Online access includes back issues, 2001–present

Land Economics is dedicated to the study of land use, natural resources, public utilities, housing, and urban land issues. Established in 1925 at the University of Wisconsin by the renowned economist and founder of the American Economic Association, Richard T. Ely, Land Economics has consistently published innovative, conceptual, and empirical research of direct relevance to economists. Each issue brings the latest results in international applied research on such topics as transportation, energy, urban and rural land use, housing, environmental quality, public utilities, and natural resources.

In addition to regular articles, there are comments on previously published articles, replies from the original author, and book reviews of select recent releases.

Special Issues

Native Plants Journal

Edited by R. Kasten Dumroese

ISSN: 1522-8339, e-ISSN: 1548-4785, 3/year

Online access includes all back issues

Native Plants Journal is a forum for dispersing practical information about planting and growing North American (Canada, Mexico, and U.S.) native plants for conservation, restoration, reforestation, landscaping, highway corridors, and related uses. Topics include seed germination, planting techniques and tools, equipment, cultural techniques, production trends, seed collection, genetics, and fertilization. The second issue of each year includes the Native Plants Materials Directory, which provides information about producers of native plant materials in the U.S. and Canada. Relevant books are reviewed in each issue.

Native Plants Journal began in January 2000 as a cooperative effort of the USDA Forest Service and the University of Idaho, with assistance from the USDA Agricultural Research Service and the Natural Resources Conservation Service.

Special Issues

3rd Pacific Northwest Native Plant Conference, vol. 7 #1

4th Pacific Northwest Native Plant Conference, vol. 9 #3

South Texas Natives, vol. 11 #3
