Contemporary North American Poetry

Alan Golding, Adalaide Morris, Lynn Keller, Series Editors

THIS SERIES IS COMPLETE

Original Series Description

Publishing critical studies of recent poetry, collections of essays on poetics, biographies of individual poets or groups of poets, and correspondence and memoirs, this series will document, analyze, and seek to sustain the many exciting and diverse developments in North American poetry since the 1950s. Contemporary North American Poetry aims to represent a variety of contemporary aesthetics and to illuminate ongoing debates about the material forms and contexts of recent poetry. As part of its project, the series will commission from leading scholars new guides to significant poets or poetry movements.
