New Perspectives in Southeast Asian Studies

Series Editors: Alfred W. McCoy, Ian Baird, Katherine A. Bowie, and Anne Ruth Hansen

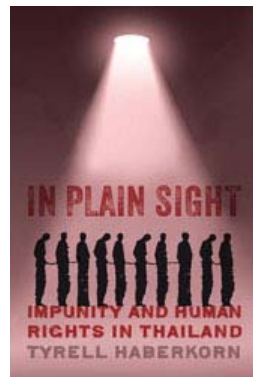

Associate Editors: Warwick H. Anderson, Ian Coxhead, Michael Cullinane, Paul D. Hutchcroft, and Kris Olds

New Perspectives in Southeast Asian Studies publishes academic books that focus on historical and contemporary problems in this dynamic region, from local issues through global interconnections. While the series as a whole covers cultural, economic, environmental, political, and social issues, individual titles aspire to the fine-grained research and theoretical innovation long associated with scholarship on Southeast Asia. Editorial work is a collaborative effort between the University of Wisconsin Press and the University's Center for Southeast Asian Studies, a National Resource Center that has promoted the study of this region for forty years.

The Politics of Humor in the Vessantara Jataka in Thailand

Katherine A. Bowie

“Provides historical justification for a new reading of the Vessantara Jataka and offers delightful ethnographic descriptions of its varied performance in several regions of Thailand. An excellent addition to Thai studies and to the understudied field of Southeast Asian literature.”
